Description

SMN 1025

From designer Seth M. Nelson comes a stunning addition to our Country Home House Collection. Spring View has everything you need and want. The classic white exterior paired with wood columns is sure to attract the eyes of your guests, and the unique curved front porch will be a great conversation piece as it welcomes friends and family into your home. The large Foyer leads into the home Office through charming barn doors to the left, where you will find plenty of storage space in a large closet. Following the main hallway will take you into the spacious den, which offers a cozy fireplace and open access to the luxury Kitchen. This Kitchen is perfect for entertaining, with a large center island, tons of counterspace and a huge walk-in pantry. An attached Dining space gives way to the Covered Porch, complete with an outdoor grill, as well as a cozy Sunroom, which conveniently accesses a half bath.

To the right of Spring View, you will find Bedrooms 2 and 3. While Bedroom 2 boasts more space, both rooms enjoy a private bath and large walk-in closets. A wonderful Reading Nook is located in between, equipped with a comfy bench seat. On the opposite side of the home, you'll find the luxurious Master Suite. The master bedroom has enough room to house a King bed and still have plenty of space, while the Master Bath is fully equipped with his and her vanities, plenty of counter- and storage space, and a large tub and separate corner shower. The huge walk-in closet also features center drawers and makeup station and directly accesses the Laundry Room! The 3-car Garage has tons of space and even features an additional storage closet and designated space for an additional freezer. Need even more space? The Bonus Room upstairs will make a great game room or home theater! How would you customize this amazing house plan?
