Description

Exterior details on this Historical Nelson Design Group home add character to this stately, symmetrical design. Upon entering the foyer, French doors lead to an optional study where privacy awaits and antique furniture can be showcased. While the formal dining room enhanced with elegant columns leads to the well-equipped kitchen. The Breakfast room separates the master suite quarters from the additional bedrooms and has an optional basement stairway next to the garage entry. Retire to your master suite full of amenities, treat yourself to a soak in the corner whirlpool tub and afterwards enjoy private access to the rear-grilling porch for late night stargazing.
