Description

MEN 5255

From designer Michael E. Nelson comes a stunning addition to our European House Collection. A callback to colonial classic design, Lindel Manor is a luxury vision with French classic inspirations! Soft beige bricks make up the exterior with a rich, dark mahogany roofline trim. Sweeping steps lead to the portico and stunning arched front door. Lindel Manor offer 5813 sq.ft. with 5 bedrooms, 5 full bathrooms, and 2 half baths. Three sets of French doors lead to a huge outdoor patio for backyard garden parties. Flowing into the covered outdoor living area, vaulted ceilings and brick arch openings decorate this social space, while a gas fireplace draped in masonry stones brings natural elements into the design.

Open Floor Design

From a stunning portico through the arched entry, you are led into a beautiful foyer with a staircase leading up before you and a large gathering room with fireplace to the left. An alternative to the open great room ahead, the gathering room allows for a more formal space to entertain your guests, with easy access to the half bath. Straight ahead of the foyer is the Great Room/Kitchen open floor plan, complete with a cozy fireplace to warm the whole family on cool nights. A large bar top separates the great room space from the kitchen, offering additional seating for gathering, as well as casual meals. A huge walk-in pantry with double entry provides so much space to satisfy your inner chef's needs!

A breathtaking vaulted ceiling decorated with timber beams over the kitchen flows into the dining space, large enough to suit a 12-person dining table! This space also looks out onto the outdoor living space, adding a gorgeous view to your family dinners. To the right a hallway opens to the laundry room, where two washers and dryers, tons of counter space, and a center island folding counter work together to make laundry day easy! Just outside the 3-car garage, this room also accesses the mud room, complete with a bench with hanging hooks and a convenient half bath. This area will contain unwanted dirt to one space, taking away the stress of chore day.

Main Level Master Suite

Split Bedroom Design

This European style home plan offers privacy to all! In a split bedroom design on the main level, Bedroom 2 is found directly across from the great room/kitchen space. A cozy sitting area beside the window is a great addition to this bedroom design, and a private bathroom fully equipped with a walk-in closet and dressing table makes this room perfect for a coming-of-age teenager.

The upper level, with a balcony open to the great room below, features three more bedrooms, each with walk-in closets and private bathrooms. Bedroom 5 also enjoys an extra storage closet, while the bathroom to bedroom 3 can also be accessed from the hall. Bedrooms 3 and 4 also feature a cozy window seat. This upper level living space is perfect for the kids to share, and the 873 sq.ft. bonus room with a kitchenette could easily serve as a game room or playroom.
