Description

MEN 5297

From award winning home designer Michael E. Nelson comes a beautiful addition to our Rustic House Collection. Draped in rustic wooden features, Summervale Place is a 4 bedroom dream home just waiting to come to life. With two dining areas, a bonus room/home theater, and plenty of space all around, this rustic house plan is perfect for the growing family needing more room. 3 garage bays make it perfect for the family with multiple vehicles needing more storage. An open floor concept makes it easy to enjoy multiple areas of Summervale Place at the same time. A screened in porch and a separate grilling porch make for great outdoor living potential.

Open Floor Design

Heading on into the Foyer from the rustic, covered front porch, you'll find great views of the dining area. Led directly into the great room, you're greeted by a spacious open floor plan with plenty of room for entertaining. Built-in shelving frames the tall 10' fireplace while the large eat at kitchen island overlooks the open great room. A butler's pantry separates the kitchen from the dining room, while the breakfast room offers plenty of seating as well. On the west wing of Summervale Place, you'll find 3 bedrooms with a large guest bathroom. On the east wing, you'll find the laundry room, staircase to the bonus room, access to both garages, and the luxurious master suite.

Main Level Master Suite

The luxury master suite of Summervale Place is spacious in more ways than one. A beautiful boxed ceiling frames the master bedroom, while double doors and windows illuminate the master bedroom in natural light. A spacious master bath offers plenty of space to get ready while also complimenting the incredible storage opportunities. A large glass shower is complemented by the free standing tub and double vanity. A large walk-in closet also gives way to the laundry room for easy access.

Bedrooms

Back on the west wing of the home, through the hallway right off of the great room, you'll find access to the 3 bedrooms of Summervale Place. With walk-in closets, these rooms offer great storage opportunities for both your kiddos and your guests. A large guest bathroom also offers two vanities, tons of storage, and great room to get ready.
