Description

MEN 5376

From award winning home designer Michael E. Nelson comes a brand new addition to our Farmhouse Collection. Mulberry Farms is perfect for your next build! The wrap around covered porch allows for a cozy home experience and curb appeal for everyone to enjoy, and a 3-car garage paired with a storage closet offers more space than you could imagine. The great room features a cozy fireplace for the family to gather around on cold nights. An open dining and kitchen layout makes for an additional gathering place, complemented by a large eat-at island. The master suite of Mulberry Farms is located to the right of the great room. His and her closets separate the bedroom from the luxury master bath, which features a massive walk-in shower below a refreshing rain head. The lower level also holds a craft room and home office, and an 803 sq.ft. in-laws suite is found on the right side of the home. Here you will find an additional laundry room, an open space shared by a kitchen and great room, a bedroom and bath, and private access to the garage, as well as a screened porch. Upstairs is a large game room and half bath. How would you customize this amazing house plan?
