Description

MEN 5387

From award-winning designer Michael E. Nelson comes the newest addition to our European House Collection. Dogwood Trace is the perfect house plan to suit the needs of your whole family. Stone accents paired with a white exterior make for the best curb appeal, and an arched entry with double doors give your guests a warm welcome. A vaulted ceiling completes the grandeur of the great room and fireplace, and the kitchen brags of a center eat-at island and a breakfast nook beside it. Outside, a screened porch offers a relaxing place to gather around a cozy fireplace. To the left of Dogwood Trace are two master suites, each complete with walk-in closets and full bathrooms with walk-in showers, perfect for multi-generational families. On the right are bedrooms 2 and 3, which share a Jack and Jill bathroom, and bedroom 4, which enjoys a private bathroom, as well as access to the screened porch. A cozy nook for the kids to enjoy lies by the stairs, which lead up to a bonus room. How would you customize this amazing house plan?
