Description

MEN 5011

From award-winning designer Michael E. Nelson comes a stunning addition to our Craftsman Bungalow House Collection. Austin Manor has everything your family will need and more! Charming shutters complement the shake and board & batten siding, while the side load garage is hidden from view, giving you perfect street appeal. The large Foyer leads way to the formal Living Room and Dining Room to the left and right, respectively, as well as the open living quarters of the Great Room and Kitchen straight ahead. This space allows for great entertaining, as guests can mingle together without separation. A large eat-at bar island also provides a designated space for some guests to chat with the cook without leaving the goings-on elsewhere. The party can even flow out to the large Screened Porch in all kinds of weather! On casual days, enjoy your morning coffee in the cozy Breakfast Room tucked into a charming alcove with bay windows. A built-in computer center is also featured here, implementing a healthy mixture of family and work.

To the right of Austin Manor is the Master Suite. In the bedroom, a beautiful boxed ceiling showcases its charm, and the Master Bath is accentuated by luxury, with a free-standing tub and separate glass shower, dual vanities, a private toilet room, and a large walk-in closet. The left side of the home holds the rest of the bedrooms for a peaceful split bedroom design. At the rear of the home are Bedrooms 2 and 3, which each enjoy two closets and share a Jack and Jill style bathroom in between. Bedroom 4 is located at the front of the home with a hall bath. Need an extra space? The optional upstairs Bonus Room is perfect for a game room and features a convenient half bath. How would you customize this amazing house plan?

This plan has the option for a front load garage, if desired
