Description

Poolhouse Plans

Have you ever glanced at the area around your swimming pool and thought that something seems to be missing? A poolhouse can provide that perfect finishing touch that will make hanging out by the pool even more enjoyable. A poolhouse can also give you that much-needed storage space for your pool games, cleaning equipment, deck chairs and your grill during the winter months. What's more, a well-designed poolhouse adds an ornamental touch to the area around your swimming pool.

At Nelson Design Group, we feature an assortment of innovative poolhouse plans at affordable prices. Our design plans will meet your functional, visual and lifestyle requirements. Whether you use them for storage, relaxation, entertainment or all of the above, our poolhouse plans will add that missing element to your backyard pool area.

The Poolhouse 1495 from Nelson Design Group

The 1495 is one of our more popular poolhouse plans. This charming pool house offers a large covered porch with an optional grilling area, plenty of space for a table and chairs and/or lounge chairs for entertaining and shelter from the sun. Elegant columns frame the porch, while inside is a bathroom, space for a stacked washer/dryer and a separate shower. Around back is a storage area for pool equipment.

Feel Free to Customize Any of Our Poolhouse Plans

There are so many ways you can customize the 1495 or any of our other poolhouse plans. Perhaps you'd like to forego the grilling area to pick up a bit more porch room. Maybe you need a larger bathroom or more storage space for pool equipment. Or, maybe you really don't need a stacked washer/dryer. We can make just about any design modification you desire.

Our on-staff design specialists will perform a comprehensive review to ensure the changes are made to your specifications. Our customization services are available at competitive rates, which helps keep your project costs under control.

Superior Customer Service Is a Nelson Design Group Hallmark

If you're concerned about starting a poolhouse project — perhaps because you've never attempted anything like it in the past — let us put your mind at ease. Our goal is to make the process as stress-free as possible. You'll always receive prompt and reliable answers to your questions and experience a fast resolution of any issues that crop up along the way.

And if you're a builder, you'll appreciate how easy it is to order designs from NDG. You won't waste valuable time that's better spent serving your clients.
