Description

This Nelson Design Group home plan promotes family unity, inside and out. Columns line the front porch and are also used inside to add elegance to the interior. A great room with computer niche, media center and cozy fireplace will be a favorite place for family to relax while an elaborate kitchen with large walk-in pantry and adjoining dining room form the heart of the home. A kid's nook near the grilling porch provides a place to de-clutter, while the privately placed master suite and spectacular bathroom is hidden at the rear of the home.
