Description

Note: 8-inch concrete wall construction and tile roofing. See NDG 386 for a similar wood-framed version.

Designed for abundant living, this outstanding house plan has everything. The three bedrooms are split for privacy, with an enormous bay-windowed master suite accessed beneath an arched opening off the foyer, just beyond the library. Arches also frame the final dining room, which opens to the great room with its 12-foot ceiling. The kitchen, breakfast room and den with fireplace all look out on the lanai with beaded ceiling and columns. A three-car attached garage completes the package.
