Description

MEN 5267

From award-winning designer Michael E. Nelson comes a stunning addition to our Farmhouse House Collection. Simplicity looks so sweet in the South Fork country rustic floor plan. A luxuriously roomy 1,805 sq.ft. of living space holds 2 bedrooms and 3 full baths. A key feature of this country delight is the grand wrap-around porch. Sip your sweet tea and savor the hazy afternoons in style! Natural shake siding and gray stone work in tandem to enfold South Fork in a cozy blanket of rustic, country charm. Twin pillar columns dance along the wrap-around porch, giving the comfortably low roofline the perfect amount of shady relaxation. The 4-bay garage leaves room for the biggest trucks and boats, as well as your project vehicles and luxury rides!

Open Living Area

The front door opens into the grand Great Room. This incredibly large living area is ready for your largest rugs and trophies. A stone fireplace rests on the right wall, completing the picturesque country living vision with late nights before a roaring fire. A top beam before the informal dining area gives the illusion of a divided space without the cumbersome walls. Following the dining area is the Kitchen. Wall-to-wall counter space will make a chef out of even the most amateur cook! A quaint island offers seating for three more guests or family members sipping coffee and watching the birds start their day. The laundry room is found at the back of the kitchen and doubles as a convenient mudroom with built-in shelving and hanging space, as well as leading to the garage for quick morning exits!

Bedroom Luxuries

The main level Master Suite holds a private en-suite bathroom with a master closet to make any heart swoon. The Master Bath is a dual-vanity dream of ample counter space, and the large corner shower features a built-in corner seat to turn this bath into a personal spa. Bedroom 2 soaks up all the natural lighting from the front windows. A spacious full bath just outside Bedroom 2 offers easy access for morning routine hygiene. A modest walk-in closet offers great storage space.
