Description

SMN 1070

Modern architecture and farmhouse style meet to bring you a barn-inspired addition to our Farmhouse House Collection by designer Seth M. Nelson. Cedar Farms is just what the doctor ordered for the country lover that needs a splash of modern in their life. With a grey metal exterior, wooden shutters, and a rustic craftsman style entry, Cedar Farms brings a new type of curb appeal to your neighborhood. Just over 3,200 sq. ft., this home offers 5 bedrooms and 3.5 bathrooms, perfect for the lodging needs of your growing and extended family. An open floor concept with a large pass-through fireplace offers optimal entertaining space, making your home feel grand and spacious.

Open Floor Design

Heading directly through the front entryway of Cedar Farms, you'll find yourself enjoying the large, luxurious great room space featuring the pass-thru fireplace. Directly around the fireplace, you'll find the dining area overlooked by the large kitchen with a large eat-at island bar. Tons of cabinet space offers great storage for all of your kitchen needs. If the cabinets aren't enough storage, you'll also enjoy the walk in pantry on your way to the large mudroom/laundry duo.

Main Level Master Suite

On the west wing of Cedar Farms, you'll find the entrance to the Master Suite illuminated by window at the front of the house. A large master bath offers a vanity with two sinks, perfect for couples needing their own space in the morning, along with a private toilet room, large walk-in shower, and spacious closet opening to the laundry room for easy access.

Bedrooms

The other four bedrooms of Cedar Farms share two Jack and Jill bathrooms with two sinks each. The bedrooms are joined together by a kids' living space, perfect for a gaming room, kids' lounge, or multi-purpose area. This might just be the perfect plan for your growing family!
