Description

SMN 1038

From designer Seth M. Nelson comes The Shop, a unique addition to our Farmhouse House Collection. With a love for simple living and a great space to work, this 1500 square foot dream home is perfect for the individual who needs to keep work and home life within feet of each other. A metal exterior offers practicality, along with an industrial feel that will offer tons of curb appeal. A great open floor plan concept offers tons of potential for your family while keeping with the simplicity of The Shop, with a spacious great room separated from the kitchen by an eat-at bar top perfect for family meals. From the great room, you can access all three bedrooms. The master suite is located to the left, complete with a spacious walk-in closet and master bath, which features a luxury tile shower and dual vanity for you and your spouse. Bedrooms 2 and 3 are found to the right, and the shared bathroom enjoys three entries: private access from each bedroom and public access from the hall. How would you customize this amazing house plan?
