Description

MEN 5312

From award winning home designer Michael E. Nelson comes the newest addition to our Colonial Classical Federal House Collection. A classic white exterior complements the front porch and upper balcony, pairing together to bring Creole Place curb appeal like no other. A beautiful open floor plan offers great entertaining potential, showing off a large great room and fireplace in a huge space with tons of natural light. Here, the dining room, breakfast nook, and large eat-at kitchen island offers so many options for gathering and will allow your guests to mingle easily at large get-togethers. A half bath is also located in this space for your guests' convenience, and an optional patio may serve as an additional place to gather. The master suite is found to the left of Creole

Place. Boasting of an 11' boxed ceiling, the bedroom opens to a master bath that is sure to refresh you, complete with a free-standing tub that may be opted out for a walk-in shower, dual vanities, and a spacious walk-in closet. Upstairs you will find two massive bedrooms, each with a walk-in closet and access to a Jack and Jill bathroom. A cozy library/loft area is the perfect space for the kids to enjoy. How would you customize this amazing house plan?
