Description

MEN 5332

From award winning home designer Michael E. Nelson comes a multi-family house plan with a cottage element that will have you feeling right at home. Sandpiper Cottage offers a white board & batten exterior that pairs nicely with the rustic stone elements. A covered front porch and attached breezeway connect the two matching living spaces. An open floor plan creates the perfect cozy setting for your family. Outdoor storage is also offered on the exterior equaling 74 sq. ft.

Open Floor Design

Upon entering Sandpiper Cottage, you're greeted with a charming den featuring a staircase and stone fireplace. An eat-at kitchen bar connects the den and living room for a great open feel. The dining area is illuminated by the double door exit which leads to the covered back porch and breezeway.

Main Level Master Suite

The master suite of Sandpiper Cottage can be found on the first level. With a private bathroom and personal closet, the master suite offers tons of natural light and the perfect cozy feel. The first guest bedroom can also be found on the main level down the shared hallway, along with the guest bathroom.

Upper Level Living

Up the stairs, you'll find access to bedrooms 2 and 3, along with a shared bathroom. Great views are offered from both bedrooms with picture windows to help illuminate the upstairs of Sandpiper Cottage.
