Description

MEN 5345

From award winning home designer Michael E. Nelson comes a brand new addition to our cottage collection. Whispering reek Cottage is a one of kind cottage plan with a rustic charm. A striking white board & batten exterior pairs nicely with a complimenting stone skirt around the home plan. A pairing of metal and shingle roofing offer a great contrast to the white exterior. The covered front porch offers the perfect frame for the double door entrance.

Open Floor Design

Heading on in through the double door entrance, you'll find yourself greeted by the charming foyer area. On into the great room, you'll find yourself in awe of the vaulted ceilings, natural light, and great open floor concept. The fireplace rest in the center of the room for great layout options for your common room. The kitchen rests between the dining and breakfast rooms with a great eat-at kitchen island breaking up the kitchen and great room. Tone of storage potential can be found in the upper and lower cabinets, while even more storage opportunities can be found in the pantry, just off the kitchen leading to the mudroom and kid's nook.

Bedrooms

Whispering Creek Cottage offers 3 bedrooms, perfect for your growing family. The master suite offers vaulted ceilings and a great luxurious bathroom, featuring a double vanity, private toilet room, and a free standing tub resting beside the walk in shower. Bedrooms 2 and 3 can be found on the opposite wing of the house plan with a shared bathroom resting in between in the hallway.
