Description

MEN 5337

From award-winning designer Michael E. Nelson comes the newest addition to our Farmhouse House Collection. Chancellor Place first welcomes you with a vibrant white exterior accented by stone elements that accomplishes a curb appeal unlike any other. Enjoy a two-car side load garage for all your storage needs, and greet guests from a cozy front porch. Step inside to a kitchen with all the space you could need, equipped with two sinks and a large eat-at island separating the kitchen from the great room. From the great room, you can step out onto the lovely grilling porch, spanning the entire length of the home. On the left side of Chancellor Place is the luxury master suite, which brags of not one but two walk-in closets, one accessible from the bedroom and the other from the bathroom. The master bath is fully equipped with a free-standing tub, a walk-in shower, double vanities, and a private toilet room. To the right are bedrooms 2 and 3, which share a bathroom located down a shared hallway. Upstairs you will also find a bonus room with a walk-in closet and full bathroom, the perfect place to accommodate your guests. How would you customize this amazing house plan?
