Description

MEN 5079

From award-winning designer Michael E. Nelson comes the newest addition to our Rustic House Collection. Alton Creek Place is an impressive open floor plan with a layout perfect for your growing family. The exterior offers tons of curb appeal, displaying a stone base against classic wooden shutters, and guests will be greeted under a breathtaking entry porch. Inside you will find a stellar great room with a vaulted ceiling and timber beams running across. To the left you will find the kitchen of your dreams, with a high bar seating ten people and a walk-in pantry. A dining room sits beside the foyer, allowing for more formal meals. Alton Creek Place offers you two places to relax, whether that is in the massive seasonal room or under the covered grilling porch. The left side of this home contains a kids' nook with a half bath across the hall, as well as two separate two-car garages. You will also find the master suite here, complete with his and her walk-in closets. A walk-in shower, a free-standing tub, and dual vanities make for a luxury master bath. On the opposite side are four more bedrooms, equipped with walk-in closets and Jack and Jill bathrooms between bedrooms 2 and 3 and bedrooms 4 and 5. How would you customize this amazing house plan?
