Description

This Nelson Design Group economical design is perfect for the couple just starting out. An eight inch boxed column adorns the quaint covered porch. As you enter the home you'll feel openness created in the great room which flows through to the kitchen with eat-at bar and access to the rear grilling porch. Bedroom two can easily be converted into a study for those that need to work at home. The Master Bedroom will provide the privacy needed at the end of the day with private access to the bath, and ample closet space.
