Description

You don't have to live in the mountains to enjoy this Craftsman Style home. The architectural features can be as rustic or polished as you desire, giving true personality to this timeless design. Four bedrooms are placed together on the main level quietly suited for the family area located on the opposite side. An oversized grilling porch flanked with columns is just off the dining room bay, with easy access to the kitchen. Travel upstairs and you'll find a large built-in computer center centrally located between a private office and optional bonus room or better yet, home theater.
