Description

Picture raising your children and grandchildren in this traditional home. Begin each day in your own private exercise room, then on to a hearty breakfast in the breakfast room. After the children return from school, they can begin their homework in the private study or convenient computer room. End your day in your elegant and secluded master suite. Upstairs, you will find ample room for children and visiting relatives. Of course, everyone will enjoy home movies with popcorn and soda in the wonderful home theater.
