Description

Columns and dormers add to the charm of this four bedroom Nelson Design Group home. Bookshelves flank the foyer for displaying family photos or other treasured items. Columned entries enhance the great and dining rooms. The well-planned kitchen packed with amenities will definitely be a conversation starter. This design gives the master suite the privacy of its own side of the home while the other three bedrooms are tucked away on the other side. With the inclusion of the covered grilling porch and workshop in the list of amenities, everyone is sure to find a favorite.
