Description

Natural stone and shutters enhance the exterior of this Nelson Design Group home while a cathedral ceiling in the great room gives the illusion of much more interior space. Both formal dining and breakfast rooms open into the spacious great room and enjoy a view of the cozy corner fireplace. A handy built-in computer center in the kitchen allows family to spend time together cooking and web surfing while a front bedroom/den allows a quiet space for reading. The privately located master suite is enhanced with a tray ceiling while a large walk-in closet in the private bathroom provides extra convenience. A quaint screened porch will be a favorite place for relaxing and entertaining.
